

Hani Zurob Bio

www.hanizurob.com

Hani Zurob [b. 1976 in Rafah camp, Gaza Strip – Palestine], is a contemporary artist who has been living and working in Paris – France since 2006. The artist obtained his BFA from Al-Najah University in Nablus.

In his artwork, Zurob tackles global concepts of identity, place, time and memory with all their complex details that come with the states of suspension, delays, waiting, exile, movement and displacement, absence and resistance.

Hani's oeuvre conjures his personal memories and stories that shaped his life, and, which relate to the events in Palestine and the region with what they hold as complex political and cultural dimensions; and within his topics or concepts, Zurob searches and researches these memories and attempts to understand the effects of deconstructing the relationship between the past and present on himself and on others; thus, His art transcends both borders and geography.

Zurob uses different media to the extent of its literal meaning or, at times, his metaphorical understanding of these materials and in as far as it serves the concept, where allows the concept behind a particular work to determine his choice of media.

His work can be found in several private and public collections internationally such as the British Museum, London; the Arab American National Museum, Michigan; Moderna galerija / Museum of Contemporary Art Metelkova (MG+MSUM), Ljubljana, Slovenia; Williamsburg Art & Historical Center, NY; Institut du Monde Arabe, Association Renoir, France; Cité Internationale des Arts, Paris; Mairie de Paris; Imago Mundi-Luciano Benetton, Italy; Barjeel Art Foundation, Sharjah; Dalloul Art Foundation (DAF), Beirut.

His works have been exhibited around the world. A monograph tracing the development of his work, "Between Exits: Paintings By Hani Zurob" written by Kamal Boullata, with an introduction by Jean Fisher was published by Black Dog Publishing, London in 2012.

"Hani's practice provides an important voice in contemporary Palestinian culture, as well as a significant contribution to the creation of an Arab aesthetic. Ultimately though, while Zurob's art gives powerful expression to the Palestinian collective experience, it can also be seen in the context of more universal themes of personal identity and embraces humanity beyond the Palestinian context". Kamal Boullata – Black Dog Publishing (Londres, 2012)

Zurob has won several international awards and residencies, including Bourse et Prix Renoir 2009. Zurob was named one of ten 'international artists to watch' in 2013 by The Huffington Post.
